

Councillor in the Spotlight

(Sian Gwenllian is a Plaid Cymru County Councillor for Felinheli)

1. Name: Sian Gwenllian

2. Age: 53

3. Where were you born?

I was born in Dolgellau but the family moved to Felinheli when I was 7 years old.

4. Where do you now live?

In the middle of Felinheli village taking in the beauty of the Menai Straits.

5. Tell us about your family?

Sadly I lost my husband, Dafydd Vernon in 1999. I have four children, all 'young people' now, Carwyn (20), Trystan (18), Manon (17) and Rhodri (14). Both eldest boys are currently studying at Cardiff. I also have two brothers, Dylan and Iwan who both live in the village.

6. What do you love about being a Councillor?

Trying to help people with their individual issues; working on projects to make Y Felinheli a better village and working on a county level to make Gwynedd a great place to live.

7. What do you hate about being a Councillor?

Moaners and all kinds of negative people plus the fact that the Council wheel turns very slowly at times!

8. What is your greatest achievement as a County Councillor?

Assisting to make real changes to numerous people's lives.

9. What is your happiest childhood memory?

Sitting in a tree top eating sugar sandwiches with friends at Cerrig yr Afon, a small woodland in Y Felinheli.

10. What is your greatest fear?

Losing the Vision

11. Who is your hero / heroine?

My grandmother who lived at Bwlchtocyn, Pen Llŷn

12. What is your latest project / issue?

Improving the look of the village. I'm working with the police and Council officers to deter people from letting their dogs tarnish our streets.
