

Meeting to revive eisteddfod

VILLAGERS at Y Felinheli are to try and revive their Eisteddfod.

Councillor Siân Gwennlian said there was a lot of enthusiasm about the idea.

She said: "The Eisteddfod used to be held for many years and I remember singing on stage in front of a packed hall. There is still a Felinheli Eisteddfod bank account and a sum of money available to get things off the ground."

A meeting at Bethania Chapel on March 24 at 7.30pm will discuss the idea.
