
Bike path revamp

CYCLE routes and footpaths in Gwynedd will be significantly improved during November and January as the county council carries out extensive works.

The works around Felinheli have been made possible with the support of the Assembly Government.

The work involves significant improvements to the popular Lôn Las Menai route along with a range of minor works locally making the route more accessible.